He has stated that he has applied for one day special casual leave to cast his vote for State Legislative Council Elections of Graduate Constituency and availed the Special Causal Leave on 17-03-2007. He was issued memorandum No.214/A5/CID/07, dated 24.3.2007, calling for his explanation stating that he has misrepresented the facts i.e., availed the Special Causal Leave on 17-03-2007. He has submitted his explanation in his representation dated 2.4.2007 stating that he is unaware of rule position and also due to lack of knowledge, he has applied and availed the Special Casual Leave for one day and he has not mentioned in his leave petition stating that he is a Graduate. Later, a memorandum of charge was issued to him vide Memorandum No.911/A4/2007, dated 25.4.2007, by the Director, Police Communications, A.P., Hyderabad, calling for his representation if any. Again he has submitted his explanation vide his letter dated 5.6.2007 on the same lines stated in his representation dated: 2.4.2007. Sri S.Narender Singh, Jr. Asst., has stated that his explanation / representation has been rejected stating that (1) it is not tenable and ignorance of rule position is no excuse and awarded a punishment of postponement of increment for two years without cumulative effect by the Director, Police Communications, A.P., Hyderabad vide Proceedings No.911/A4/2007, dated 4.10.2007. He has submitted his representation to the Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad on 4.1.2008, and the Additional Director General of Police (Administration), A.P., Hyderabad, has rejected his appeal. Aggrieved with the said orders, Sri S Narender Singh has preferred revision petition to the Government, requesting to set aside the punishment of PPI for two years without cumulative effect on future increments and pension awarded by the Director Police Communications, A.P., Hyderabad, in his proceedings C.No.911/A4/2007, dated: 4.10.2007.
